

As Old Town is a rapidly-developing neighbourhood, and earmarked as a future arts+tech hub, this BIPOC billboard will be an integral element reminding residents about the importance of civic-minded art and the City's commitment to social justice. The site for the artwork is located on the exterior of VAC's gallery in Old Town located on the corner of Store and Herald. The actual size of the printed work to be installed on the building is 10 feet by 10 feet.

SELECTION PROCESS

The selection process of who will be awarded this commission will be led by a jury of BIPOC artists/curators/community members/business leaders.

HOW TO APPLY

Applicants must be local Victoria-based artists who identify as BIPOC to qualify for this opportunity. Interested applicants must submit their artwork by September 01, 2022 at 11:59 PM PST. Submissions received after the deadline will not be accepted. Applications must be emailed to:

ELIGIBILITY

Applicants must be local Victoria-based artists who identify as Black, Indigenous, or as a Person of Colour [BIPOC] to qualify for this opportunity. Must be 19 years or older or have written parent/guardian consent.

DESIGN CRITERIA

The proposed artwork should address systemic barriers to inclusion in the visual arts and /or the lived experience of BIPOC artists in these territories. Proposals can be illustrated, painted, digital, photographic, collaged or any artwork that can be reproduced digitally for a two-dimensional support structure. We are looking for completed work, not a rough sketch. An Artist Statement must accompany the application.
